MEMORANDUM FOR: John Warner

SUBJECT : Olson Litigation

I heard from a lawyer friend that Daniel Rudovsky, described in the Hersh piece as the family's lawyer, is the source of the Times piece. Hersh told my friend that he left details out of the story, given to him by the attorney, in deference to the family. My friend knows Rudovsky from the Berrigan trial where they were co-counsel and is not especially high on him as a trial lawyer. He is, in my friend's words, "a cause" lawyer and doubtless will play this case for all the publicity available.
